

News from St. Joseph's Guild

SEPTEMBER, 2011

Volume 6 No 3

Dinner rates as community success

St. Joseph's Annual Fall Dinner has been pronounced a major success.

A total of 120 adults and 12 children were served. Financial results of the event will not be known until all bills are paid.

"I was thrilled to hear so much positive feedback on the cooking and on the evening in general," said Guild President Linda Cazares. "Everyone pitched in and worked hard to enable our church to hold a very successful community event."

The tri-tip entrée was barbecued by John Hard; salad was the project of Norma Sivori, Ennis Skinner and Ruth Malgesini; baked beans were prepared by Dorothy and Marsha Tate; Mary Ann Whitt provided garlic bread, and serving table workers were Judy Mier, Juliana Feriani, John and Eric Lewis. Parishioners brought desserts and Pat Dunlap and Mary Ann Whitt supervised serving of the desserts. The table decorations were the work of Susan Calfee.

Pay a fee to own a tree

An Adopt-a-Tree program, to continue beautification of our church grounds, will get underway in October.

Plans call for planting of a row of trees along Madrone St., on the far side of the parking lot. Linda Cazares, our guild president, is researching tree varieties and prices. Sponsors will then be invited to pay an adoption fee. Sponsors' names will be announced and a fall work day will be set for planting.

Linda reported the program has already drawn three sponsors.

Winners claim prize baskets

Themed baskets again attracted major interest at our Annual Fall Dinner. And ticket buyers contributed more than $800 to the evening's proceeds.

Kathy Harrington was the chairman of the effort. She lists the winners:

Garden basket — Mary Antinetti.
Lavender basket — Ronni Hanf.
Stained glass window print by Laurie Sylwester — Diane Feriani.
Kitchen basket — Tina Heldstab.
John Hard artwork. — Dorothy Tate.
Barbecue basket — John Giannini.
Coffee, tea and treats basket — Agnes Rosasco.
Italian basket — Kathy Casey.
Bird basket — Tracy Hagey.
Grocery cart carrier — Sally Dios.
Cash prize ($100) — Patrick Franco.

"My sincere and grateful thanks to all who contributed to the basket raffle."

*—Kathy
Harrington*

